

PART V: DEPARTMENT-ADMINISTRATION POLICIES

V-A: Departmental Mentoring

Primary responsibility for counseling and supporting faculty members as members of the College, the University, the profession, and the community resides in each faculty member's department.

- V-A-1 Departments shall develop procedures to ensure that such counsel and support is available. Procedures should be clearly communicated to all faculty members.
- V-A-2 Such counsel and support shall extend, but not be limited, to such matters as (a) attaining tenure and/or promotion, (b) maintaining and/or increasing one's skills in teaching, scholarly activity, and/or service, or (c) becoming integrated into the COE, the University, and the community at large.
